CHRISTOPH KONCZ | MOZART'S COSTA-VIOLIN

Austrian violinist Christoph Koncz enjoys a wide-ranging international career as a soloist, conductor, chamber musician and principal of the Vienna Philharmonic. His engagements have taken him to numerous countries across Europe and to the Middle East, Asia and Australia as well as North and South America. At the age of just nine, Christoph Koncz received worldwide acclaim for starring as child prodigy Kaspar Weiss in the Canadian feature film "The Red Violin", which won an Academy Award for Best Original Score.

Born 1987 in Konstanz into an Austrian-Hungarian family of musicians, Christoph Koncz received his first violin lesson at the age of four and subsequently studied with Eugenia Polatschek, Josef Hell, Igor Ozim and Boris Kuschmir at the Music Universities of Vienna, Salzburg and Graz. As a soloist, Christoph Koncz performed with conductors such as Charles Dutoit, Marc Minkowski and Sir Neville Marriner. His chamber music partners include Leonidas Kavakos, Joshua Bell and Gautier Capuçon. In 2008, at the age of twenty, Christoph Koncz was appointed principal second violin of the Vienna Philharmonic.

EVGENIA VOTANOPOULOU | MOZART'S FORTEPIANO

Evgenia Votanopoulou was born and educated in Athens, Greece. She started playing the piano at the age of five and after ten years she won her first award as a young pianist. She studied with L. Boyadjieva, A. Papastefanou and L. Stoyanova and in 1992 she graduated with distinction from the National Conservatory of Athens, Greece, having obtained the Diploma of Piano, Diploma of Advanced Theory Studies and the Diploma of Choir conducting.

In 1998 Evgenia represented Greece at the "Second International Women's Musical Meeting". She has given numerous performances as a soloist, a chamber musician and piano accompanist in Greece, Serbia and Germany. She has performed for the National Hellenic Radio and has recorded B. Athanasiadis' compositions for solo piano in Tokyo, Japan.

She has also composed and recorded the music for a book on kinaesthetic activities for children.
