CONCERT

GEORGE GERSHWIN

RHAPSODY IN BLUE (SOLO PIANO)

EVGENIA VOTANOPOULOU | PIANO

Evgenia Votanopoulou was born and educated in Athens, Greece. She started playing the piano at the age of five and after ten years she won her first award as a young pianist.

She studied with L. Boyadjieva, A. Papastefanou and L. Stoyanova and in 1992 she graduated with distinction from the National Conservatory of Athens, Greece, having obtained the Diploma of Piano, Diploma of Advanced Theory Studies (harmony, counterpoint, fugue) and the Diploma of Choir conducting.

She has given numerous performances as soloist, chamber musician and piano accompanist in most of the main Concert halls of Greece, (Megaron, Pallas, Parnassos, etc) as well as in Serbia, Germany and Turkey and has also performed for the National Hellenic Radio.

In 1998 Evgenia represented Greece at the "Second International Women's Musical Meeting" and participated in the recording of the accompanying CD. Since 2005 she has been collaborating with the choir of Bank of Greece.

She has recorded solo piano works in Tokyo, Japan, by the composer Basil Athanasiadis, for the CD "Straycat's Dream" which is released by the UK-based CD label Sargasso as well as her own music for a book on kinaesthetic activities for children (Nakas edition).

In March 2016, she was honored to perform with Christoph Koncz at the Mozart's Museum of Salzburg (Mozart's Residence). They both played with the original Mozart's musical instruments, Mozart's original fortepiano and Mozart's Costa-violin which now belong to the Mozarteum foundation.
